

The General Chairman of the 75TH Temple City Camellia Festival, Jessica Westgate Goold, is pleased to announce that, as acknowledgment of their founding of the parade, the Woman's Club of Temple City has been named as this year's Grand Marshal. The Woman's Club was founded in 1925 and has a current membership of ninety-nine. In 1944 they held a contest to choose a flower and a slogan for the community, and Mrs. Ralph Saunders submitted the winning slogan "Temple City Home of Camellias." Many of the current Woman's Club members have participated in the Camellia Festival throughout the years, and are looking forward to celebrating the 75th Anniversary of this signature achievement.
