

CYNTHIA VANCE
OUTSTANDING OLDER AMERICAN

Cynthia Vance exemplifies what it means to be an Older American of the Year through her unwavering dedication to community building and service. Her lifelong commitment to fostering strong, connected communities challenges outdated stereotypes about aging and proves that civic engagement has no expiration date.

For over a decade, Cynthia has been a cornerstone of Temple City's community life. As a member of the Temple City Parks and Recreation Commission from 2012 to 2023, she played an active role in shaping recreational opportunities that brought residents of all ages together. Her leadership extended into her tenure as President of the Temple City Kiwanis, where she championed programs supporting youth, families, and local initiatives. Cynthia Vance is living proof that aging is not about slowing down but about deepening one's impact. Through her leadership, volunteerism, and relentless commitment to bringing people together, she has redefined what it means to grow older, proving that community spirit knows no age.
